

KSAs Acquired by Teachers as Outcomes of Participating in iEARN

Knowledge

- Making new friends
- Learned variety of things through the forums (Things I never learned about before)
- Traditions and customs of other nations
- In every project, there was a huge amount of information that I learned
- Higher proficiency in English
- NGOs and Laws that I never knew before

Skills

- How to use computers effectively
- How to confidently express myself without being shy
- Being exposed to great scholars in the country helped me to develop myself using them as models
- How to cooperate with others
- How to manage projects
- How to use the Internet to search for information
- How to lead a group to carry out a collaborative task
- How to communicate with colleagues and seniors for conducting a project
- How to use English effectively (I am not an English teacher)
- How to attract my students attention
- Work with colleagues in a team
- How to deal with students in different stages with different abilities
- How to organize effectively and accurately
- Building teams
- How to make effective relations with others inside and outside Egypt
- How to evaluate a task
- How to conduct a workshop
- How to make a work plan
- How to promote citizenship in my students

Attitudes

- Positive attitudes toward others with different opinions or points of view
- Team spirit
- How to be specific and see the positive side and the negative side separately
- Eliminating the “ego” and working for a group
- Accepting/Respecting the other and communicating with him
- Sense of belonging to my country
- Being more forgiving
- Valuing voluntary work for our community
- Being responsible
- Seeing the world from a more positive perspective
- Preserving my national Egyptian identity through effective participation on the forums